This Apostille:

- Only certifies the authenticity of the signature and the capacity of the person who has signed the public document, and, where appropriate, the identity of the seal or stamp which the public official bears.
- Constitutes an Apostille under the Hague Convention of 5 October 1961 Abolishing the Requirement of Legalisation for Foreign Public Documents only if the Convention is in force between the United States and the country where it is to be presented.
- Is not valid for use anywhere within the United States of America, its territories, or possessions.
- Complies with the proceedings of the International Forum for the electronic Apostille Programme (e-APP).
- This certificate does not constitute an Apostille under the 1961 Apostille Convention when it is presented in a country which is not a Contracting Party to the Convention. In such cases, the certificate should be presented to the Embassy or Consulate representing that country.
